

Professor Zbysław Muszyński

The Department of Logic and Philosophy of Science
Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland

His main field of study is philosophy of mind and philosophy of language. He is the author of about 50 articles on various philosophical themes, including philosophy of communication, the role of semantic properties of expressions of natural language and their transmission in human communication. He has also written on issues such as the naturalizing of meaning and reference, on the defense of externalism (extended mind) and on causal theories of reference. In the area of cognitive science, his research centers on philosophy of linguistic science and semiotics. He is presently working on a book devoted to the naturalizing of human communication.

He is a member of The Polish Philosophical Society, The Polish Cognitive Science Society and The Polish Semiotic Society

He is the editor and the co-editor of seven volumes and the co-editor of three editorial series: "Realizm. Racjonalność. Relatywizm" ("Realism. Rationality. Relativism"), "Umysł: Studia z kognitywistyki i filozofii umysłu" ("Mind: Studies on Cognitive Science and Philosophy of Mind"), RRR – Kognitywistyka (Cognitive Science). He is a member of three advisory editorial boards.
